Guessing Meaning and Breaking it Down (with NACLO Problems)

Byung-Doh Oh

Department of Linguistics
The Ohio State University

January 24, 2024
Metro High School

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

I saw her duck.

1. A pack of clowns were throwing tomatoes at Sally. I saw her duck.

1. A pack of clowns were throwing tomatoes at Sally. I saw her duck.

2. Sally, who owns many pet animals, invited me over. I saw her duck.

A pack of clowns were throwing cupicasts at Sally.

It can even give you ideas about made-up words

A pack of clowns were throwing cupicasts at Sally.

1. Cupicasts can probably be held in a clown's hand

It can even give you ideas about made-up words

A pack of clowns were throwing cupicasts at Sally.

1. Cupicasts can probably be held in a clown's hand

2. Cupicasts are probably light enough for a clown to hold

My tomato enjoys watching TikTok videos.

2) Words can be broken down into "semantic features"

	tomato	horse	boy	man	girl	???	calf
animate	-	+	+	+	+	+	?
human	-	-	+	+	+	+	?
female	-	-	-	-	+	+	?
adult	-	+	-	+	-	+	?

2) Words can be broken down into "semantic features"

	tomato	horse	boy	man	girl	???	calf
animate	-	+	+	+	+	+	?
human	-	-	+	+	+	+	?
female	-	-	-	-	+	+	?
adult	-	+	-	+	-	+	?

- +human words can probably enjoy TikTok videos

2) Words can be broken down into "semantic features"

	tomato	horse	boy	man	girl	???	calf
animate	-	+	+	+	+	+	?
human	-	-	+	+	+	+	?
female	-	-	-	-	+	+	?
adult	-	+	-	+	-	+	?

- +human words can probably enjoy TikTok videos
- Can break words down to features, and features can be used to guess words

TL;DR

1. Context is useful for determining (and guessing) the meaning of words and sentences

TL;DR

1. Context is useful for determining (and guessing) the meaning of words and sentences

2. Meaning can be broken down into semantic features

TL;DR

1. Context is useful for determining (and guessing) the meaning of words and sentences

2. Meaning can be broken down into semantic features

3. NACLO problems typically ask you to do both (for nonsense/non-English words)

Remainder of today

1. Walkthrough of "Vloxes"

2. "Predicate Etiquette"

3. "Yumology"

4. "Family Ties" (if time allows)